I am not sure there is anything decidedly defamatory in this. If the Hospital Apte himself takes the risk of a failure I have no objection - also if he will himself bear the costs of the proposed Prosecution if Court orders are required under the Rules or Existing orders, I would in substitution of the office draft say that "Govt have no objection to H taking all his own costs such action as he may [illegible] desirable"

There are two factions at-Ardkalgud one headed by the Municipal & Police Inspector and the other by certain other offs including the Hospital Asst The feeling at the place seems to be very strong both for and against the Hospital Asst Col Kenyon & Mr Chaworth made enquiries on the spot when they were last with me did not suppose wish to go there and take any part in the investigation either active or passive — An order of the kind I have suggested above seems sufficient
